

What did you think of that?

Use the first column to record your answers to the questions.

Interview another student and record their answers in the second column.

	Your answers	Another student's answers
Who is your favorite character?
Choose two words to describe that character?
What is your favorite part of the story?
What could you add to the story to make it better?
Which character in the story is most like you?
Do you think the story could have a better setting? If you answered yes, where?
Did you like the way the story ended? Why?
Does this story remind you of another story you have read? If you answered yes, which one?		